

Sources to Consider:

Note: If we feel a resource is particularly useful for a specific course, we will list the course number with the website.

General Education Resources www.eric.ed.gov –The world’s largest digital library of educational literature www.eduref.org –Educators’ reference desk www.lib.umn.edu –The University of Minnesota Library System www.ed.gov –The U.S. Department of Education www.edweek.org –Education news and current events in education www.childtrends.org –Research in the service of children www.teachernet.gov.uk –International issues in education www.nami.org –The National Alliance on Mental Illness www.netsmartz.org –The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children website www.naeyc.org –The National Association for the Education of Young Children www.futureofchildren.org –Promotes effectiveness policies/programs for children www.cyfc.umn.edu –The Children, Youth & Family Consortium www.talkingwithkids.org –Tools and techniques for communicating with today’s youth www.elementary-teacher-resources.com –Resources for elementary school teachers www.learner.org –Teacher resources and professional development www.srkd.org –The Society for Research in Child Development www.alfiekohn.com –Articles and information on human behavior/education/parenting www.gt-cybersource.org –A resource for gifted/talented educators www.davidsoninstitute.org –Gifted/Talented Education www.earlychildhood.com –A resource for early childhood educators www.npin.org –Information about special education www.autismspeaks.org –The leading non-profit organization devoted to Autism www.aspergerchild.com –Articles, books, and testimonials concerning Asperger Syndrome www.naspsweb.org –National Association of School Psychologists www.wsartsalliance.com –Washington State Art Alliance-foundation for arts education www.studentsfriend.com –Teaching ideas for teaching world history and geography www.nea.org –The National Education Association www.projectcriss.com –Creating Independence Through Student Focused Strategies www.readwritethink.org –Strategies for teaching reading and writing www.bluewebn.com –Lessons, webcasts, info for teachers/librarians www.madsci.org –The Mad Science Network www.l80techtips.com –Free technology tips for teachers www.free.ed.gov –Free federal resources for educational excellence <http://songsforteaching.com> –A resource for putting learning to music www.wholechildeducation.org – Ideas for teaching the “whole” child www.twowritingteachers.wordpress.com (course 598) – Helpful in teaching writing www.edutopia.org/classroom-management-learning-states-teenagers (courses 693, 737, 964) www.makebeliefscomix.com – fun resource for creating comic strips <http://www.one-story.com> (course 598, 523, 608 642) – Another writing resource

Resources for Teachers and Parents www.ncpie.org –The National Coalition for Parent Involvement in Education www.sayyestono.org –Learning to say “no” to children www.parentchildhelp.com –Research based information on parenting issues www.parenting.umn.edu – Resources for parent education www.practicalparent.org – Ideas for practical parenting

Updated 1/26/10